

Larry D. Cox

Larry was born in Nashville, Tennessee and has lived in Memphis since 1953. He attended the University of Memphis and earned BBA and MBA degrees. He served three years on active duty in the Air Force as a Transportation Officer. He is a general aviation pilot and holds a commercial license.

Larry has been employed by the Memphis-Shelby County Airport Authority since 1972 and has held several management positions including Director of Properties and Deputy Director of Aviation. In April 1985, he was appointed President.

He has earned the designation as Accredited Airport Executive and is active in numerous trade associations. Larry is currently serving as First Vice Chairman of the American Association of Airport Executives and will be Chairman beginning in May 2000. He has served on the Board of Directors of Airports Council International, is Past President of the Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives, Past President of the Tennessee Association of Air Carrier Airports and Past President of the Memphis Skat Club. He serves on the Board of the Memphis Area Chamber of Commerce, Mid-South Minority Purchasing Council, the Memphis Uniport Association, the Advisory Council of Fogelman College of Business and Economics, and the American Association of Airport Executives. He was named the Outstanding Young Alumnus in 1988 by University of Memphis, Communicator of the Year in 1987 by the Memphis Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America, and 1994 Airport Manager of the Year by the Southern Region of the Federal Aviation Administration and received the Kitty Hawk Award from the Federal Aviation Administration in 1996.

He is married and has two children.

February 2000